Dedication

Mr. and Mrs. Loveless

We, the Senior Class of Cromwell High School, are proud to dedicate this year-book, "Spartan Spirit of '61," to a man who has served as our leader and the leader of many others since he came here in 1922. We of the Senior Class wish to take this dedication as our opportunity to say "Thank you, Mr. Loveless."

Class History

From Past to Present

Eleven bright faces entered Cromwell High School in September of 1949. Among them were: Sharon Archer, Joyce Burkett, Judy Justus, June McDonald, Carolyn Miller, Donna Peters, Theresa Conner, Judy Garber, Pat Elliott, Douglas Koher, and Thomas Micheals. Mrs. Bunger was our first teacher.

In the second year Mrs. DeMotte was our teacher. Sue Ann Juday joined our class that year.

Mrs. Stangland was our third grade teacher. Three new students joined us that year. They were: Stewart Allison, Bob Augspurger, and Kenny Leamon.

Connie Smith, Gladys Hart, Tommy Hire, and Sidney McClumsey joined us in the fourth grade. Mrs. Stangland was again our teacher.

Robert Wallace joined us in the fifth grade. Mr. Conley was our teacher.

In our sixth year Judy Garber left us. Larry Bitner, Walter Frick, and Ronald Sheppard joined our class.

Ronald Sheppard, Robert Wallace, Sue Ann Juday, and Gladys Hart left during the summer months. Kathryn McDonald and Nora Murphy joined our seventh grade class making it an even dozen. We chose Mr. Bailey as our sponsor.

In the eighth grade, Miss Sullivan was our sponsor. We gave a pantomime for the high school.

In September, 1957, we entered Cromwell High School as "green freshmen." Those who transferred from Kimmell were: Vivian Scarbeary, Judy Baker, Sharon Rosenogle, Bob Groves, John Moore, Larry Growcock, Harold Fought, Burris Bonham. Noland Laramore, Alberta Moore, Penny Rodgers, and Larry Bair also joined our class. During the year Alberta, Noland, and Bob Augspurger left us. We chose Mrs. Witmer as our class sponsor. We all lived through initiation and gave the Sophomores a return party. In April our Biology class took a trip to Chicago. We put on a 1-act play "No Time For Skirts."

Richard Bechtold and Mary Bennett joined our Sophomore class. Theresa Conner and Mary moved. Our class sweaters were charcoal, pink, and white. Mr. Bailey was our sponsor. We put on a 1-act play "The Ghost of Punkin Holler."

In our Junior year we chose Mrs. Swihart and Mrs. Witmer as our sponsors. We ordered our class rings and were thrilled when we received them. We put on a 3-act play "No Boys Allowed." We decided to have our Junior-Senior reception at Howard's in Syracuse and a dance at the gym. We all considered our prom a big success.

In August we entered Cromwell for our last year. We gained two new members, Brenda Hunt and Don Ferguson. "Anything worth doing, is worth doing well," so let's finish it.
